

Your Turn 2 – Unit 4 WB – Seite 27 – Übung Bird stories

Big break 1– Reading corner – Bird stories

Do you remember the texts? Close your book and complete the texts. Then check with the book.

1 Stop, thief!

Once or twice a week, a seagull (1) _____ outside McColl's newspaper shop in Aberdeen, Scotland and then, when there is no-one in the (2) _____, it walks in, takes a (3) _____ of crisps from a (4) _____, walks out of the shop, opens the packet and eats the crisps. The (5) _____ of the shop, Mr Nagarajan, said, "He only takes the cheese crisps – they're his (6) _____."

The seagull – Sam – is now a celebrity in the town and Mr Nagarajan's other (7) _____ are happy to pay the 55 pence for Sam's crisps. And it's good for Mr Nagarajan's shop too.

Lots of people come to the shop because they want to see the (8) _____ in action!

2 A perfect partner?

Every day in summer, at around 6.30 am, an eight-year-old peacock, Mr P, (9) _____ from his home in the town of Brierley to a (10) _____ station one hour away. He spends the day (11) _____ the petrol pump and walking up and down, showing his (12) _____ tail feathers. Mr P is in love with the petrol pump! (13) _____ say that the petrol pump makes noises like a lady peacock. Mr P finds this (14) _____. The peacock's owner, Mrs Horsman, says that Mr P's brothers have also got (15) _____ romantic ideas.

One is in love with the family cat and the other (16) _____ his time flirting with an orange football.